

SSM

NASHVILLE

SSM Nashville is an established Music Row company with proven success since 2008.

Our artist roster and team have more than 40 years of experience in the music business and account for millions of records sold.

As a song-driven company, our singer-songwriters together have more than 50 songs cut by major recording artists including Kenny Chesney, Gary Allan, The Oak Ridge Boys. Our singer-songwriters have also contributed to No. 1 hits including “Tight Fittin Jeans” (recorded by Conway Twitty), “Adalida” (George Strait), “Cold One Coming On” (Montgomery Gentry), “The City Put the Country Back in Me” (Neal McCoy), and more.

SSM Nashville strives to establish a family atmosphere by building and maintaining positive relationships with its featured artists: the heart and soul of our business.
